|---|---|--|
| Where does this story take place? How does this setting shape/affect the character? | Find a key quote in the book. Using evidence from the text, explain its importance. | What is the message/lesson the author is trying to teach in this story? Use evidence from text to describe it. |
| What is the main problem/obstacle that the character must overcome? Was it solved? | When and where did this story take place? How do you know? | Do you like or dislike the main character? Why? (What has he/she done/said to make you feel this way?) |
| Describe a change a character made in the story. Support with evidence from text. | Name two "author's moves" that you could emulate/try in your own writing next school year. (i.e repetition, figurative language, sensory details) | What emotion(s) did this book make you feel? What words did the author use that make you feel that way? |

Summer Reading Challenge Project List: Choose only ONE project from this list to complete (Can be completed electronically).

- 1.) Write a poem or song lyrics that connect to your novel. Focus on the plot, characters, and/or personal connections you have with the novel. (*20 lines or longer).
- 2.) Write a letter to the author of your chosen novel. Explain what you liked and/or disliked, ask any questions you have about the story/characters, explain what you would have changed if you were the author, and mention at least one thing you will always remember about this novel and why. (*at least one full page and written in letter format)
- 3.) Create a poster charting the plot of your novel. Include key details and descriptions of the events in the exposition, rising action, climax, falling action, and resolution. Write a statement of the main theme with quotes from the novel for support.
- 4.) Create an illustrated book cover for your novel. Include a summary of the story that describes the main character and the central conflict.
- 5.) Create a cartoon/storyboard (minimum of 8 panels) based on your novel. Focus on pivotal events and put them in chronological order.
