

Write the sentences correctly.

1. If you's stuck in the wilderness and need to know if a fruit is poisonous, cut them open.

2. If the fruit don't smell like almonds or peaches, rub the juice on their arm

Rewrite the sentence to fix the shift in mood.

3. If there is no sting or rash, rub it on your lips, and you should put it on your tongue.

What is the purpose of the underlined verbal?

4. If it doesn't burn your mouth, eat a small bite and wait a few hours before finishing it.

Write the sentences correctly.

1. I've heard that Cypress Middle School are considering start classes at 8:00

2. Right now, first period begin at 8:40, that is early enough for students

Write the missing word or words.

3. If most teenagers _____ school too early, they wouldn't be alert.
start would start were to start

Circle all the gerunds in this sentence. What part of speech do the gerunds act like?

4. Starting later would allow students to focus on learning, not on staying awake.

Write the sentences correctly.

1. Helen Keller she became blind and deaf before she were two year old.

2. She couldn't hardly communicate til Anne Sullivan taught her fingerspelling

The Latin root lectus means "to read." What does the bold word in the sentence probably mean?

3. Anne fingerspelled textbooks and teacher lectures for Helen throughout school.

Circle the function of the underlined verbal in this sentence.

4. After college, Helen wrote books and articles about blindness to educate the public.

- a. noun b. verb c. adjective d. adverb

Write the sentences correctly.

1. Grandpa told Dad about buy plane tickets when he was his age

2. He had to talk a travel agent, that had printed lists of all the flight times

Rewrite the sentence to fix the shift in voice.

3. The agent read through all the different schedules until the best flight was found.

The Greek root archaios means "old." What does the bold word in the sentence probably mean?

4. Buying a ticket that way seems so archaic compared to using modern travel websites.
