

Write the sentences correctly.

1. Ketchup travels around the world, before becoming the food itself is today.

---

2. In the 1690s the chinese made a tasty sauce from pickled fish, and spices.

---

Use context clues to figure out the meaning of the bold word. Write the meaning on the line.

3. British explorers took the "ke-tsiap" to England, where the condiment became a popular way to improve dull food.

---

Rewrite these sentences as a single complex sentence.

4. Immigrants brought ketchup to the New World. They added tomatoes.

---

Write the sentences correctly.

1. Joellen tried out for the vollyball team, but was not chose.

---

2. Her oldest sister Joy said I seen you serve the ball, and you're not very strong.

---

Add punctuation to the sentence.

3. It's not fair Joellen said because I really want to play and I know all the rules.

Complete the sentence with the more appropriate word. Then explain your choice.

4. "If you train hard and are _____, you'll get on the team," Joy said.
persistent                  stubborn

---

Write the sentences correctly.

1. Shaking hands is a formal greeting since at least 2,000 years ago.

---

2. Originally, a handshake shows that both people are not carry a weapen.

---

Complete the sentence with the word that best shows the writer's feelings. Then explain your choice.

3. This _____ custom should be replaced with a modern greeting.

primitive      quaint      traditional

---

What does the underlined phrase mean?

4. These days, a handshake's germs can slay us like a bow and arrow.

---

Write the sentences correctly.

1. The community service club at school, it is sponsor a canned food drive.

---

2. Please, bring your cans to the giant barrell in the main office by friday.

---

Use context clues to figure out the meaning of the bold word. Write the meaning on the line.

3. Check the date on the label to make sure the food is still good and hasn't expired.

---

Write a comma (,), ellipsis (...), or dash (—) to complete the sentence. Then explain your choice.

4. Donate today ____ you'll be glad you did!

---