

Name _____

Instructions: After reading Aesop's Fables, choose five fables and complete the chart with the character(s) and the lessons the character(s) learned in each story.

Character(s)

What lesson did the character(s) learn?

Name _____

Instructions: Place quotation marks in the correct places in each sentence. Then, write three sentences of your own that use quotation marks.

- ① You fly so fast and so gracefully, the fox continued.
- ② Thank you for the delicious snack. I got just what I wanted, said the fox.
- ③ The goddess of animals replied, You are jealous of the nightingale, but you should not be.
- ④ Yes, but my voice sounds terrible, complained Peacock.
- ⑤ Look at all this food! exclaimed the country mouse. You must eat very well.

My Sentences:

1. _____

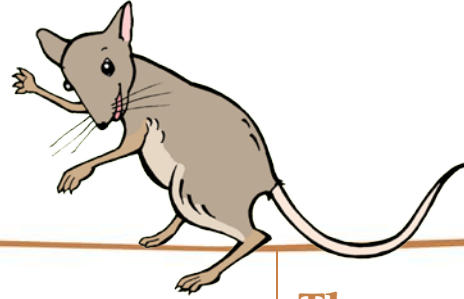

2. _____

3. _____

Name _____

Instructions: Choose an antonym for each word from the box at the bottom of the page. Then, write the antonym in the Antonym column. Put a check mark in the Thesaurus column across from each word after you check your answers in a thesaurus.

add alive crooked child
fresh fiction dull north

Word	Antonym	Thesaurus
sharp		<input type="checkbox"/>
stale		<input type="checkbox"/>
straight		<input type="checkbox"/>
subtract		<input type="checkbox"/> dead		<input type="checkbox"/> south		<input type="checkbox"/>
adult		<input type="checkbox"/>
fact		<input type="checkbox"/>